

Eaves autumn workshops

Exiting prostitution good practice workshop

Eaves is running a series of workshops for borough-level statutory agencies and voluntary service providers who focus on prostitution. The aim is to equip attendees with the knowledge required to assist individuals who want to leave prostitution – including victims of trafficking – through facilitating access to appropriate services. Workshops will be run over a day and a half and attendees are expected to attend both days.

The training costs £150 (statutory agencies) or £110 (voluntary agencies).

Workshop content

Day 1 – awareness-raising

Prostitution: facts and figures • UK and global context • services and prevention

Day 2 – best practice

Local context • legislation • case studies with guest speakers (details below) • taking action on exiting – how to improve your borough's response

Autumn dates

Wednesday 19th & Thursday 20th September 2012

Wednesday 17th & Thursday 18th October 2012

On day one the course runs from 1pm-4.30pm and includes a guest speaker from an external support agency, plus lunch and refreshments. Registration/networking from 12:30pm.

Day two runs from 9.30am-4.30pm. Lunch and refreshments included.

Who should attend?

- Anyone in the statutory, voluntary or community sectors in contact with women in prostitution but not (currently) offering a specialised support service; and/or
- Service managers and commissioners from all sectors who are seeking to improve/strengthen their service responses to women in prostitution.
