Eaves is a charity that supports and protects women who are victims of, or at risk from, any form of violence.

We support 3,000 women a year. Areas in which we work include human trafficking, domestic violence and sexual violence. We empower women to escape dangerous and often life-threatening situations. We work with them so that they can assert their independence and develop the skills they need to live happier and more fulfilled lives. Through our research, lobbying and campaigning, our work has a national and international impact. Read more at www.eavesforwomen.org.uk. The Supper Club is our biggest fundraising event in 2013 and we invite you to step back in time with us this April. Your support at the Supper Club will help us raise the donations we need to continue our work.
