

Consultancy services - working with women in prostitution

Find out how Eaves can help you...

- Save money by creating cost-effective solutions for women in prostitution in your borough
- Help more women in your borough to exit prostitution and lead independent, fulfilled lives
- Develop a strategy, which is workable and effective, for tackling prostitution
- Train your staff to fully understand the reasons behind women's involvement in prostitution

BOOK NOW!

Discounts available for early bookings.

Consultancy work can include:

- Training around exiting and good practice in supporting women, tailor-made for your organisation and borough (full- & half-day courses available)
- Advice and guidance on policy and strategy development, including written comments on draft documents and telephone consultations
- Compiling tailor-made resource packages for your borough or organisation
- Mapping exercises including the prevalence of prostitution within your borough
- Community Engagement – initial meetings and ongoing workshops with local community / residence groups around their views on prostitution.

To discuss your needs, contact Julia Hilliard now on 020 7840 7114 or at julia.hilliard@eavesforwomen.org.uk

Eaves has provided accommodation and support to women in prostitution in London for more than 10 years; prioritising their safety, maximising their options and supporting those who wish to exit.

eaves
putting women first